Job Purpose and Organizational Context

Why the job exists:

The William Watson Lodge facility is a unique specialized facility that provides year-round, barrier free, adapted wilderness lodging for Albertans with disabilities, Alberta seniors, and out of province persons with disabilities. The main lodge, 22 cabin units and campground are located in a remote location, over an hour away from the closest town, with no cell phone service or public Wi-Fi. Visitor Services Specialists provide front line information, concierge services, and are the sole staff member on site over night, responsible for ensuring resources, information and equipment are provided to support the safety, security, and comfort of up to 166 guests. The Visitor Services Specialist reports to the Visitor Services Supervisor and is part of a team that is responsible for ensuring WWL has positive, effective, and efficient interactions and communications with guests, the general public, partners and other stakeholders. This position is responsible for the successful delivery of the Visitor Services program, including delivery of visitor information services, lodging procedures and reservations, and supports programming and activities that enhance experiences and eliminate barriers for Albertans with disabilities to access nature. The staff members in this position mentor, coach and support wage staff members within a framework that requires a high level of independence and use of discretion within well-established guidelines and procedures. The role is important in ensuring that WWL continues to be a safe, inclusive, responsive, and innovative year-round accessible facility for all visitors. Weekend, evening and overnight shift work are required.

Problem Solving

Typical problems solved:

William Watson Lodge Visitor Services Specialists are the first point of contact for client issues and requests for support in emergency and non emergency situations. Situations are often dynamic, complex and unpredictable, requiring creative solutions with considerations to a client's special needs.

The position affects service excellence in relation to lodging experience, information, programming and guest services provided to the visitors and guests to William Watson Lodge, Peter Lougheed Provincial Park, Kananaskis Country and the general area. Visitor Services Specialists trouble shoot issues with administrative equipment and processes, implement temporary solutions and recommend changes to ensure business continuity. Staff in this position provide policy and procedural recommendations to the Supervisor and Team Lead for consideration.

Staff in this role work closely with the Caretaking and Maintenance staff to resolve issues related to facility cleanliness and mechanical functionality. Visitor Services Specialist staff are supported to make decisions on how best to manage after hours non-emergency situations based on impact to guests and the facility.

Types of guidance available for problem solving:

This position reports directly to and takes direction from the Visitor Services Supervisor and occasionally from the Team Lead. Although this position is performed within well-established guidelines and procedures, it requires considerable overall awareness of the functionality and co-ordination of the site as a whole. This position requires a high level of discretion and independent decision making, with nearly half the hours working alone with no "on call" assistance from higher level positions. The unique nature of the facility and client base requires a specialized human relations skill set, catering solutions and support to the specific needs of clients. Staff draw from education, area knowledge and experience, operations manuals, training manuals and when on shift, can refer to a higher level team member for support. William Watson Lodge Visitor Services Specialists are the first point of contact for client issues and requests for support in emergency and non emergency situations. Response times for Emergency Services and after hours enforcement are often over an hour away.

Direct or indirect impacts of decisions:

This position impacts service excellence in relation to lodging experience, information, programming, and guest services provided to the visitors of WWL, Peter Lougheed Provincial Park, Kananaskis Country and the general area. This position requires strong time management and prioritization skills, and excellent co-ordination and communication skills to ensure that other team members are positively impacted, kept informed of and supported by the duties of this position. Decisions made by the staff member have a direct impact on client health and safety, as well as facility operations.

Key Relationships

Major stakeholders and purpose of interactions:

This is a front-line position interacting daily with WWL guests and visitors. This position works directly, on a daily basis with maintenance, caretaking, snow crew, and other guest services staff at WWL, as well as volunteer campground hosts and partners to maintain smooth facility operations. This position maintains regular contact with Visitor Engagement and Visitor Information staff in the Kananaskis Region and the Provincial Contact Center regarding information and reservation services, website updates and interpretive programming. This position works closely with 3rd party contractors on the reservation system and helps support partnerships including with the William Watson Lodge Society, accessibility partners and organizations that work for the benefit of Albertans with disabilities.
