Design: Identify Job Duties and ValueJob Purpose and Organizational Context

Why the job exists:

Reporting to the Manager, Strategic Integration and Complaints Resolution, the Complaints Resolution Advisor is a front-line contact who manages divisional complaints and their associated correspondence. This position manages client issues forwarded to the department, and profiles, triages, and resolves external stakeholder complaints. In scenarios requiring program area expertise, the Advisor consults with those SMEs, while continuing to lead response efforts. The Complaints Resolution Advisor operates independently, while working collaboratively with Program Area SMEs on complex files.

The Advisor helps shape external communications by responding to a range of incoming divisional complaints, and collaborates with internal stakeholders to identify effective, consistent and proactive approaches to solving the concerns of Albertans.

The Advisor uses their direct knowledge of incoming complaint trends to flag emerging issues with divisional leadership and ensures accurate complaint profiling to support robust reporting. The Advisor uses quantified data to develop and revise complaint policies and processes, and cultivates an awareness of current events to forecast potential complaint pressures and develop proactive messaging and strategies.

This position plays a critical role in establishing, implementing, integrating and monitoring effective business and communication processes. The Complaints Resolution Advisor works under high pressure to provide timely and accurate advice on current and emerging issues and ensures information is elicited from the affected program areas in an efficient, effective and accurate manner. A strong understanding of communications, policy and organizational issues is required.

Significant interaction is required with various divisional subject matter experts and with key staff at all levels, ensuring reporting and documents accurately reflect progress on day to day operations of Traffic Safety Services.
