Job Purpose and Organizational Context

Why the job exists:

The Legislative Analyst plays a key role in the planning, development, implementation and tracking of legislation, regulations, Ministerial orders, Delegation Orders and other legal instruments for the Ministry of Assisted Living and Social Services (ALSS). This position is required to work closely with department staff and officials including central agencies such as Legal Services, Legislative Counsel Office, and ALSS's agency secretariats. The Legislative Analyst provides corporate legislative services for all bills, regulations, Orders in Council, Ministerial Orders and Delegations within ALSS's legal framework. While operating under the direction of the Manager, Policy Coordination and Legislation, this position carries out functions with a high level of independence.

This position supports the transformation of policy into legislation and contributes to the development and execution of the department's legislative and regulatory agenda in order to accomplish government priorities. The Legislative Analyst position will combine their expertise with learned experiences and institutional knowledge from staff across the ministry to ensure timely development and approval of legal instruments in this specialized field.

Ultimately, this role ensures a systems lens is placed on legislative work occurring across the ministry, leads a coordinated approach to the development of legal instruments, and maintains a variety of databases to track and record legislative changes over time. This role is expected to act for the Manager of Policy Coordination and Legislation, and the Director of Policy Coordination,

Support ALSS program areas in moving legislative projects through the government decision-making and Legislative Assembly process to approval (e.g. advising and consulting with program areas on legislative and legal requirements, pathways, and timelines for proposed or required changes).

Work in partnership with program areas, Legal Services staff, and LCO in the planning and development of legislative projects.

Contribute to the legislative and regulatory planning processes to set agendas for the departments.

Advise department staff in the review of acts, regulations, or policies that have a legislative impact and participate in any internal working groups required to complete the review.

Provide technical legislative advice and guidance on legislation, policy, governance, or legislative projects to staff and department officials.

Collect and compile feedback and direction on legislative and regulatory drafts (e.g. annotated versions of proposed changes to legislation or legal instruments).

Support the development of bills, and new and amending regulations including activities related to project management of the development and approval processes and providing drafting instructions to LCO.

Support the development and drafting of Recommendations for Orders in Council and Ministerial Orders working with Legal Services and LCO.

Review proposed strategic and operational policies of the department in order to identify any legislative issues or problems and recommend solutions.

2. Research, analysis, monitoring, reporting, and building capacity.

Provide legislative-related research and analysis on legislative issues including jurisdictional legislative analysis of statutes and regulations, searching CanLII databases, King's Printer, Orders in Councils, previous legal opinions.

Foresight activities including the monitoring of legislative developments in Canadian jurisdictions to identify trends that may affect Alberta legislation and analysis of impacts.

Monitor and analyze the Alberta Hansard during each legislative session to identify issues relating to the department and anticipate and advise on responsive actions where required.

Monitor all department Action Requests related to legislation to provide advice and recommend intervention where necessary.

Provide responses to legislative-related Action Requests as required.

Track, analyse and report on Ministry progress on responding to external recommendations (e.g. Office of the Child and Youth Advocate)

Maintain all internal tracking and reporting activities for ALSS by maintaining records for all legislation, regulations, Ministerial Orders, Delegation Orders, and other legal instruments.

Collecting and establishing a database of legal opinions on key subject matter.

Act as a liaison to divisional policy coordination staff in reviewing the Initiative Tracking System and any other tracking or reporting related to legislation.

Build and maintain a network of trust relationships with department staff, Justice and Solicitor General and Executive Council in order to identify strategies to manage department legislation.

Tracking expiry dates for legal instruments and making recommendations to have those instruments replaced or rescinded as required.

Establishing key processes for and train the rest of the department on legislative and legal instruments development/approval.

Create documents, and provide support and advice related to the development of legislative-related training or resource material for department staff.

Manage the Corporate Registry function of the department to maintain and secure all original signed non- regulatory Ministerial Order and Board Order records.

Facilitate the publication of Ministerial Orders on King's Printer.

Participate in the work of the GoA Legislative Planners Network

Serve in an acting position for the Manager of Policy Coordination and Legislation, as required.

Problem Solving

Typical problems solved:

The Legislative Analyst must:

- provide guidance and advice on complex issues in a timely, accurate and clear manner to staff of all levels of understanding. The position requires a high degree of independence, flexibility and adaptability as priorities may change quickly in response to direction set by the Minister and Ministry officials.
- work closely with ALSS Legal Services and department staff to developing legislation in a compressed timeframe to support commitments from the Premier, Minister, or Deputy Minister.
- proactively identify practices within the Ministry that may not be in accordance with applicable legislation and policy, and influence Ministry staff and officials to modify practices to comply with legislation and policy (e.g. revamping the delegation practices for statutory directors to meet legislative requirements).
- apply legislative knowledge and interpretation skills to produce draft legal instruments (ministerial orders, Recommendations for Orders in Council, delegation orders, etc.) on short timelines
- develop and maintain orderly, up-to-date, and easily searchable databases for ALSS legislation including Ministerial Orders, projects, Cabinet Committee decisions and so forth.

Types of guidance available for problem solving:

The Director of Policy Coordination, Legislation and Agency Governance, the Manager of Policy Coordination and Legislation, ALSS's Legal Services team, and Ministry Program Areas may provide advice to the Legislative Analyst to help guide them in completing their duties.

Direct or indirect impacts of decisions:

The decision packages and general work of this role has the potential to impact a large number of individuals and organizations throughout the province.
Delegations and Ministerial Orders provide legal authority individuals require to exercise statutory duties and powers. Accuracy of these documents mitigates potential legal risk for the GOA. Other Ministerial Orders for exemptions can have a direct impact on large group of individuals' access to government AISH and Income Support benefits.

Key Relationships

Major stakeholders and purpose of interactions:

Interact daily with the Manager of Policy Coordination and Legislation, and the Director of Policy Coordination, Legislation and Agency Governance, and act for the Manager as required.

Interact regularly with program areas in different divisions and the strategic policy and policy coordination teams in the department.

Interact regularly with directors, managers, ALSS' Legal team and senior representatives throughout the Ministry for the purposes of exchanging information, providing recommendations and advice on legislative matters.

Interact regularly with ALSS' legal team to:

- discuss issues and share information regarding legislative, legal and/or policy matters.
- seek legal advice, opinions and legislative interpretation

Interact as required with Divisional leadership for the purposes of providing updates on legislative projects and providing recommendations and advice.

Interact with LCO as required for the purposes of providing drafting instructions, discussing issues, and sharing information regarding legislative legal and/or policy matters.
